Guidance for 2023 (issued 23 May 2023 in prospectus)

For 2023, net sales are expected to exceed EUR 350 million (comparable net sales in 2022: EUR 332.4 million), with recurring EBITDA higher than comparable recurring EBITDA in 2022 (comparable recurring EBITDA in 2022: EUR 24.7 million).

Comments by Lars Hellberg, President & CEO

During the first half of year 2023, Fortaco's successful growth continued. The growth of net sales was 22 percent in H1-2023, compared to the corresponding period in the previous year, and totaled to EUR 192 (157) million. Recurring EBITDA grew 19 per cent in H1-2023, compared to the corresponding period in the previous year, and was EUR 16.9 (14.2) million. The balance sheet key indicator of net debt versus EBITDA was on a good level at 1.9. We have a good cash position, which enables sustainable business development.

We continued our acquisition path and made the strategic decision to acquire MauserCABS, an Austrian-based company, in May. In addition, Fortaco signed a letter of intent to acquire the rest of the shares in Buisard Cabins, of which we already own 35 per cent. Both transactions are expected to close in Q3-2023. In June, Fortaco successfully issued subsequent bonds in the amount of EUR 27.5 million to provide financial resources for ongoing acquisitions and strategic investments in accordance with our targets. I wish to thank our European bond investors – we are honored to have your trust.

We started several development and co-operation projects to strengthen our business and market position. The Poland Gliwice region capacity extension project is a greenfield investment that consists of a covered production area of 34,000 square meters and new equipment. With this investment, Fortaco expands its footprint for steel fabrication and vehicle cabin operations and gains additional efficiency based on a high degree of automation and strong operational excellence. Serial production is expected to start by the end of the third quarter of 2024. The earlier announced extension of the business site Holic in Slovakia, to build a high degree of automation and capacity, is progressing according to the investment plan. Fortaco Estonia OÜ and Systemair AS, the owner of the real estate housing Well Technology OÜ, signed an agreement where Fortaco Estonia expands its operations into the Well Technology building. Through this deal, Fortaco Estonia extends its capacity by 8,000 square meters of floor space. This strengthens Fortaco's position as one of the largest, strategic partners for steel fabricated component OEMs (Original Equipment Manufacturers) in Europe. Serial manufacturing is expected to start at the beginning of 2024. Also, there are several implementations ongoing across Fortaco business sites for automation and digitalization to make tomorrow safer and better.

Our order book remained healthy and was EUR 72.2 million. However, we foresee, depending on the market segment and customers, dealers and OEMs aligning their inventories to adjust to the normalized supply chain delivery situation. However, the market segment causing disturbance is the marine and energy market, which is negatively impacting the capacity utilization of two Fortaco business sites. We are closely monitoring global, local, and several other indexes, to be prepared for potential capacity adjustments.

We have won additional business in the defense market and foresee growth opportunities in the shortand medium term in this segment. Additionally, Fortaco is currently introducing several new global OEM customers to be part of our customer portfolio, and acquisitions are expected to bring us additional, complementary customers. I would like to highlight Fortaco's robustness, quality, and delivery performance, which make us an interesting strategic partner for our current and new customers.

We have seen an increased activity from our customers to start operations and localization in the United States. As previously announced, Fortaco's strategic plan contains actions to offer the same business portfolio in the US as in Europe. The Fortaco team has explored the market and we expect the company to be present in the US in the near future. Our joint venture with Tata AutoComp in India is proceeding.

The first cabin samples are manufactured for customer approval, and production is planned to start by the end of 2023. We are expecting the joint venture to accelerate the growth of the local Indian market and exports.

Steel market prices are currently declining, and the margin impact is expected to be neutral for us. In the coming period, we strive to execute further sourcing synergies based on the business growth and acquisitions together with our professional supply chain.

Operating environment and market overview

Despite increasing general economic uncertainties, including continuously increasing interest rates, the market situation for Fortaco remained healthy during the first half of the year. Several key customers for Fortaco have very high order books resulting in high deliveries for Fortaco. Also, the order intake for Fortaco remained generally good during the period under review. However, deep diving into individual industry segments shows continuous weak demand in the marine and energy market space, whereas demand in, for instance, the defense and mining segments has remained high.

The price of steel, the primary raw material for Fortaco, has declined significantly from peak levels in 2022, though the price level remains high in 2023, compared to the historical prices before 2021. Cost inflation development in other main cost categories has stabilized, but the overall cost level remains high. Fortaco has focused on defending its margins by negotiating fact-based prices, increased with its customers during the first half of the year.

Fortaco Group's financial performance 1.1.-30.6.2023

Fortaco Group's net sales in the review period was EUR 192.1 million, representing an increase of 22.4 per cent versus comparable net sales in the respective period in 2022. The increase in net sales was driven by both volume and price increases in several businesses and segments. Certain business sites in Fortaco, especially the marine and energy segments, continued to suffer from structurally low demand.

Fortaco Group's Recurring EBITDA was EUR 16.9 million (8.8 per cent of net sales), comparable growth being 19.4 per cent. Non-recurring items during the review period totaled EUR 2.1 million. The amount of non-recurring items is driven by the extensive business development and performance improvement agenda currently undertaken by Fortaco. EBITDA was EUR 14.8 million (7.7 per cent of net sales), EBITA EUR 9.6 million (5.0 per cent), and net income EUR 1.1 million during the review period. Earnings per share was EUR 1.1 during the review period.

The consolidated balance sheet amounted to EUR 226.6 million on June 30, 2023. Cash and cash equivalents amounted to EUR 22.0 million and, on top of this amount, the Group had EUR 11.0 million pledged cash, which can be used for acquisitions and other expansionary investments. Hence, total liquidity on June 30, 2023, was EUR 33.0 million, which is a very high amount. During the review period, Fortaco Group paid earn-out amounting to EUR 8.3 million to the previous shareholder of the company.

Fortaco Group's financial performance 1.4.-30.6.2023

Fortaco Group's net sales in the review period was EUR 95.9 million, representing an increase of 14.8 per cent versus comparable net sales in the respective period in 2022. The business volume was good during the review period. Fortaco Group's Recurring EBITDA was EUR 8.7 million (9.1 per cent of net sales), comparable growth being -2.2 per cent. The underlying business performance continued to improve with exception of few business sites, whereas the profitability during the review period in 2022 was boosted by swift adjustment of sales prices to reflect the rapidly increasing cost of steel, and related positive timing impact.

Non-recurring items during the review period totaled EUR 1.3 million. The amount of non-recurring items is driven by the extensive business development and performance improvement agenda currently undertaken by Fortaco. EBITDA was EUR 7.4 million (7.7 per cent of net sales), EBITA EUR 4.8 million (5.0 per cent), and net income EUR -0.3 million during the review period. Earnings per share was EUR -0.3 during the review period.

Personnel and management

The average number of personnel during the review period was 2,354. The number of personnel at the end of the review period was 2,353.

Risks and uncertainties

Fortaco follows and categorizes its risks based on the following categories, under which each individual risk is evaluated based on probability and business impact:

- Strategic risks
- Financial risks
- Operational risks
- Cyber- and technological risks
- Regulatory risks

Fortaco seeks to protect itself against risk in these categories by utilizing the Fortaco Group Risk Management approach, which is based on the three lines of defense: Governing body, management and internal audit – combined with proper analysis and reporting tools. A broader description of the company's risk management practices is available on the company's website at: investors.fortacogroup.com/fi/risk-management/.

Direct impacts stemming from the crisis in Ukraine are and have been very limited for Fortaco. Fortaco does not have and has not had any net sales either in Russia or Ukraine. Also, customers' exposure to orders from Russia and Ukraine has been limited, with a few exceptions. However, the crisis has resulted in increasing geopolitical tensions and uncertainty about the development of the global economy, and has fueled overall inflation, resulting in increased risk related to overall market demand and costs of production. Also, the availability of key commodities, such as electricity, can still be negatively impacted.

Other key risks which might negatively impact Fortaco are, for example, the availability of employees, security of systems and devices, inflationary cost environment, risks related to the extensive business development agenda, and the overall economic uncertainties that currently exist.

A broader description of identified key risks is available in the Annual Report 2022 on the company's website at investors.fortacogroup.com/fi/reports/, as well as in the bond prospectus published in May 2023, which is also available on the company's website at investors.fortacogroup.com/fi/bond.

Fortaco Group Holdco Plc

Notes to the consolicated financial statements

1. General information and basis of preparation

The group's interim financial information concerning Fortaco Group Holdco Plc and its subsidiaries (Fortaco, the Group) has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting standard and the preparation principles presented in the Group's 2022 financial statements. The reforms and annual improvements to the IFRS standards that entered into force on 1 January 2023 do not have a significant impact on the figures presented.

The interim financial information does not include all the supplementary information presented in the consolidated financial statements for the period ended 31 December 2022, and the interim information must be read together with the consolidated financial statements. The preparation of interim information requires management to use estimates and exercise judgements, which have an impact on the application of the accounting policies and the amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses presented. The actual results may differ from these estimates. When preparing the interim data, the significant accounting estimates, and judgment-based decisions made by the management, are the same as those applied in the consolidated financial statements prepared for the financial year ended 31 December 2022.

Except for the above changes, the accounting principles applied in this half-year report are the same with those applied in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Fortaco Group Holdco Plc became the new parent company when it acquired 100 per cent of the shares of Fortaco Group on 30 September 2022. Due to the transaction the comparative figures in the interim income and cash flow statement include only the fourth quarter of 2022 and therefore do not reflect the full scope of business in 2022.

All amounts presented have been rounded, and therefore the sum of individual figures may deviate from the presented total figure.

The interim report is unaudited.

2. Revenue and segment information

Fortaco has only one reportable segment, and the figures for the reportable segment are consistent with those of the Group. Significant operational decisions are made by the Fortaco Leadership Team and Fortaco's chief operative decision maker (CODM). Due to the business model, nature of operations, and governance structure of Fortaco, the operating segments are aggregated as one reportable segment.

The fair value of the senior bond on 30 June 2023 was EUR 65.3 million (31.12.2022: EUR 65.5 million). The senior bond fair value is estimated based on the market price on the valuation date.

The collaterral deposits have been transferred to long term receivables during 2023. During the review period, Fortaco Group paid earn-out amounting to EUR 8.3 million to the previous shareholder of the company. The difference of EUR 0.7 million arising from the time value of money has been recognised in the income statement under financial expenses.

Fair value Hierarchy

Fortaco Group uses valuation methods, which are appropriate for the circumstances and for which there is enough information available to designate fair value, so that significant observable data about inputs is maximized and other inputs minimized. All financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value, or for which the fair value is presented in the notes, will be designated to fair value hierarchy levels specified below based on the inputs from the lowest level, which are relevant for the whole valuation situations.

Level 1

Inputs for identical assets and liabilities are quoted prices (without adjustments) in active markets. Quoted prices are directly available from identical publicly listed markets, instrument brokers, or financial supervisory authority.

Level 2

Concerning fair valuation methods, where inputs are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly: inputs are easily observable from publicly listed markets, instrument brokers, or financial supervisory authority. Instruments shown are recognized at balance sheet value.

Level 3

Concerning fair valuation methods where the most significant valuation inputs are unobservable: when the fair valuation of a financial instrument cannot be determined for identical assets or liabilities from observable inputs in active markets, the fair value is designated by valuation methods (for example using a valuation based on cash flow discounting method). Assumptions are reflected in the inputs, such as liquidity risk, credit risk, and volatility. Changes to these assumptions may have an effect on the fair valuation of the financial instrument.

For recurring assets and liabilities Fortaco specifies the changes between hierarchy levels by reevaluate the categorization (based on the Level 3 input data, which is significant for entire valuation purposes) at the end of each reporting period.

Senior bond and other loans above are presented in the Group consolidated balance sheet in the item "Loans". Fortaco has adjusted the way of presenting the maturity of financial liabilities on 30 June 2023. The 2022 figures have been adjusted accordingly.

Fortaco Group's affiliate received a waiver from its local debt financing provider in June 2023, when it comes to the envisaged technical covenant breach of the debt service coverage ratio in Q2 2023 and Q3 2023. According to the waiver, the envisaged covenant breach is not considered to constitute a breach of the respective loan agreement.

10. Significant events after the reporting period

The bond issue, communicated on 7 June and 16 June 2023, was successfully closed in July 2023. Financing included, in total, EUR 27.5 million (gross amount) of additional bond financing. The Finnish Financial Supervisory Authority has on 23 August 2023 approved the Listing Prospectus of the Bonds and trading on the Bonds has commenced on 25 August 2023. After the tap issue, the total bond principal outstanding amounts to EUR 102.5 million, of which EUR 3.6 million is held by Fortaco Group itself.

On 18 August 2023, it was announced that Fortaco Group is expanding its operations in Narva, Estonia. The expansion includes extending capacity by adding 8,000 square meters of floor space and relevant production equipment worth approximately EUR 7 million. The new strategic extension offers jobs for approximately 40-50 employees in the very beginning.

11. Structure of the Group

On 26 May 2023 Fortaco announced the signing of an agreement to acquire the entire share capital of Walter Mauser GmbH. The transaction is expected to close during Q3 2023 and Fortaco will specify the impact of the acquisition to its financials guidance for 2023 after the closing of the acquisition.
